

We love to ride. We enjoy seeing our friends from all over whenever possible. We've had several chances to enjoy these activities. Chapter gatherings and bowling. Chapter gatherings and rides. Chapter Fundraisers and rides. Chapter Challenges and rides. You can see a theme for these activities. Additionally, we "may" eat during any one of these events. Just saying.....

Recently we've had a chance to participate in a few multi-Chapter events. Each of these extremely FUN events was enjoyed by every single person in attendance!! This is what it's all about. Riding and friends.

We participated in Chapter G's Corn Roast and had a great time. There were Members from Chapters WI-F, WI-G, WI-K and WI-N. The food was great and company FUN! Thanks for hosting Rich and Sharon.

The Wisconsin District's 1st Annual Ride in Picnic was held in Westfield, WI. There were about 62 Members from around the state in attendance and appears to have been a great hit. A centrally located place where we all can ride/drive to and see all our friends from many Chapters! This is something we are doing again!

Right at this moment we are at Wing Ding 41 in Nashville. It's been a great time meeting up with friends (old and new) from around the world. We ran into a couple we met last year during Wing Ding 40 in Knoxville, TN from New Zealand who bought a motorcycle they leave here in the US. He told me that they have put more miles on this bike than their bike at home. They are part of an International group that meet during Wing Ding each year and participate in rides around the U.S while here. When we saw them during Registration this year, they had already put on 3,000 plus miles this year and had more planned!

During Wing Ding, Wisconsin was asked to help with On Site Registration. We did the same last year and had a blast!! We'd like to thank those from Wisconsin, as well as those from GA, PA, and SC that helped! We also discussed several ideas on how they help promote GWRRA! We could not have done it without your help!!
